Friday Night Service November 12 To Honor New Members

As is the custom of Park Avenue Synagogue, the first of the new season of Friday night services beginning at 8:30 p.m. on Friday night, November 12, will be dedicated to honoring congregants who have recently joined the synagogue. The service will be conducted by Rabbi Judah Nadich and Cantor David Lefkowitz assisted by the synagogue choir with Mr. Neil Robinson at the organ. Rabbi Nadich will speak on "A Plan for Peace in the Middle East" — Comments on Yigal Allon's article in Foreign Affairs magazine.

Following the service an Oneg Shabbat tea and reception in honor of our new members will take place in the Lemberg Auditorium. They will be introduced to the officers of the congregation, members of the Board of Trustees and those who attend by Rabbi Judah Nadich. Mr. George M. Shapiro, chairman of the Board of Trustees, and Mr. Arthur H. Bienenstock, president of the synagogue, will welcome the new members. It is hoped that our congregants will attend in large numbers to greet the newest members of our synagogue family.

Park Avenue Synagogue expresses appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. James Starkman, who chaired the Membership Committee, for their efforts in contacting new members and acquainting them with the activities which our synagogue offers. A word of appreciation to congregants who have recommended the synagogue to friends and neighbors.

We welcome our newest members and hope they will find their association with the synagogue inspiring and rewarding.

David Goldstick Urges Trustees To Accelerate Fund Raising For The New Building

Arthur H. Bienenstock Calls For Leadership By Board and Advisory Council

David Goldstick, a newly-elected member of the Board of Trustees, has made a dramatic appeal urging a speed-up of the fund raising campaign for the new building, and the prompt letting of construction contracts.

At the October meeting of the Board of Trustees, Goldstick pointed out that the fund raising campaign was almost at the half-way mark and said our Chairman has simply been "too nice". The new school building is urgently needed. This is a good time to award the construction contract. Construction prices are low. In two or three years they are likely to be much higher.

Goldstick, who has already secured two major contributions for the Building Fund, then pledged $12,500 for his wife and himself, payable in five annual instalments, and urged every member to follow his example.

Arthur Bienenstock, Chairman of the Construction Fund Committee, then described the work that has been done and urged the members of the Board of Trustees and the Advisory Council to accept the responsibility of leadership of the Synagogue and themselves give generously to the project.

Earlier in the meeting, George Shapiro, Chairman of the Board, had reported that the Building Construction Fund campaign had reached $1.3 million in cash and pledges. Gifts have been received from some 200 members. If the remainder of the membership accepted its share of the responsibility, Shapiro pointed out, there would be no difficulty in financing and furnishing the new building. Shapiro predicted that completion of an attractive new building would lead to a major increase in membership and that the additional income would offset the additional expense.

Mr. Shapiro also pointed out that prompt action now would enable the Congregation to celebrate its 100th Anniversary in the new building.

Among the suggestions made at the meeting was that there be printed in the Bulletin a list of the facilities in the new building which were available to honor the memory of family and friends. The list is being prepared and we plan to list the available facilities in our next issue.

Park Avenue Synagogue Welcomes New Members

Park Avenue Synagogue is happy to announce the affiliation of the following new members. We welcome our newest congregants and hope that they will find their association with the synagogue inspiring and mutually beneficial.

Congregants are encouraged to invite friends and neighbors who are not affiliated with a synagogue to join our congregational family. Please refer names and prospective new members to Mr. Martin Leichtling, our executive secretary.

Family Service, Nov. 5

Annual Consecration Service

The annual Consecration Service will highlight the first Friday Evening Family Service of the new season November 5, at 5:45 p.m. in the sanctuary. Students of the alef classes, the newest students in the Elementary Department of our school, will be officially inducted at the service as the youngest members of the Park Avenue Synagogue family.

These services are unforgettable experiences in the childhood of our youngsters and a very meaningful family experience. We hope that congregants, especially parents and grandparents, sisters and brothers, will reserve the date — Friday night, November 5, and join in welcoming the Shabbat with their families.

Following the service, there will be a reception in honor of the students in the Lemberg Auditorium. The Parents Association, with Mrs. Arnold Lederman as chairman of the social hour, will supervise the details of the reception.

Election Showcase Sponsored by Men's Club Tuesday October 26

We hope this Bulletin arrives in time to remind congregants that the Men's Club will hold an Election Showcase meeting on Tuesday evening, October 26, at 8:00 p.m. in the Lemberg Auditorium.

Mr. Frank Moroze and Mr. Robert B. Gluckman, co-chairmen of the evening, have assumed the assignment of inviting candidates for office to present their platforms. The Honorable Howard Samuels, Ambassador to the United Nations, will represent Governor Carter, and Richard Rosenbaum, Republican State chairman, will speak in behalf of President Ford.

Congregants, their families and friends are invited to this important meeting. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting by the Hospitality Committee under the supervision of Howard Dragutsky assisted by volunteers of the Men's Club.

Candle Lighting Time

Our Proposed New Park Avenue Synagogue

Congregants have recently received an attractive brochure with photographs in color depicting the sparkling new Park Avenue Synagogue. In following issues of the Bulletin, we shall print articles explaining in detail the new building and how it will serve the needs of congregants and their children. We begin with THE LOWER LEVEL — THE HALL OF WORSHIP AND THE BANQUET HALL.

The Lounge and the new Hall of Worship will be connected to the present Lemberg Auditorium by movable acoustical walls in such a way that the entire area will provide space for 100 persons to worship. There will be an enclosed permanent bimah and an ark for the Torah Scrolls. An architectural screen will close the area during banquets and non-worship functions. Movable acoustical walls will make it possible to transform the area not only into two or three separate rooms but also into a Banquet Hall, spacious enough to seat 500 persons. Catered weddings, dinners and other synagogue functions will be possible because the congregation will have modern, attractive facilities. An attractive, comfortable Bride's Room will now become a reality. The capacity for catering promises added income for the synagogue if it is necessary. The Banquet Hall will offer excellent facilities without disrupting the day-to-day activities of the synagogue and the Religious School.

The lobby will include a Judaica exhibit, Sisterhood's Ceremonial Gift Shop, a coatroom and storage space for prayer books, skull caps, prayer shawls and other religious items.

One of the carefully planned advantages will be THE LARGE CATERING KITCHEN AND THE SISTERHOOD KITCHEN.

The catering kitchen will have its own pantry suitable for large parties. A Sisterhood kitchen has long been the dream of Sisterhood members who will find the task of arranging kiddushim, receptions, luncheons and dinners not an ordeal but a joy!

Adequate storage areas for tables and chairs, two washrooms and a powder room are an important part of the new plan.

There has been enormous excitement engendered by the new plans. They have been prepared by a fine architect. These plans must depend upon generous contributions from the entire congregation. Not only for our present generations but for future generations we, like our forefathers, must build for the future to preserve traditional Judaism and a respect for our Jewish heritage. Rabbi Judah Nadich has described the Building Fund Drive as "An Appeal to Conscience". Many congregants have already given generously. We need broad participation from all our congregants.

Pledges to Phase II are payable in three annual installments. The plans are excellent: the leadership superb—now the decision to build rests in the hands of every congregant. Please send your contribution to Rabbi Judah Nadich, 50 East 87 Street, New York, N.Y. — earmarked for the Building Fund.

Parents Association Welcome Reception For Parents and Faculty
Thursday, October 28, 1976 at 7:30 p.m. Lemberg Auditorium

Greetings by Mrs. Milton Gelman, President
Overview of Curriculum by Religious School Faculty

Mrs. David Finkel and Mrs. Bruce Gould, Chairmen of the Evening

Join us for dessert and coffee
Served from 7:30-8:00 p.m.

Institute of Adult Studies

Under the supervision of Rabbi Judah Nadich and Mr. A. Stanley Robinson, chairman, the School of Adult Jewish Studies, offers a program of intensive Jewish education for adults.

On Wednesday evenings from 8:00 - 9:00 p.m., Rabbi Harlan Wechsler, a member of the family of The Jewish Theological Seminary of America where he is an instructor in the Department of Philosophy and Ethics will give an in-depth study of The Sabbath; A Palace in Time. The course which began on October 13 will continue through December 15.

Afternoon courses in beginners, intermediate and advanced Hebrew will continue this year with Mrs. Milton Finkel of our Religious School faculty. Placement is made after consultation with Mrs. Finkel. These courses, over the years, have been very popular and well attended.

"What is Zionism?"—a course sponsored by Sisterhood will be discussed in detail by Mrs. Martha Hadassah Nadich on Tuesday mornings, November 9 and 23 from 10:30 - 12:00 noon. Congregants who have attended Mrs. Nadich's lectures in previous years know that her courses are always popular because her presentation is interesting and knowledgeable. The price of the entire series of four lectures is $5.00 a person.

For complete details please refer to the detailed brochure which was included in the October 5 Bulletin mailed to all congregants. Included was an enrollment card which we hope congregants filled out and mailed to the synagogue office.

Have You Listed The Yahrzeit Date of Dear Ones?

If you have not already listed the yahrzeit dates of dear ones with our synagogue office, please phone Mrs. Rose Greenwald (EN 9-2600) and she will note the English or Hebrew date. You will then be advised of the date to be observed every year.

Men's Club and Parents Sponsor Brunch Oct. 31

The Men's Club in conjunction with the Parents Association will sponsor a brunch on Sunday, October 31, at 12 noon in the Lemberg Auditorium for members of both organizations, children of the Religious School, their parents and grandparents.

The brunch, always well attended, will be supervised by Mr. Alan Bandler, a vice president of the Men's Club, who will serve as chairman of the affair, and Mrs. Milton Gelman, president of the Parents Association. They will be assisted by the following committee of representatives of both organizations: Dr. Herbert Frommer of the Men's Club and Mrs. Lee Barash and Mrs. Martin J. Levenson of the Parents Association.

The outstanding Israeli accordionist, Shlomo Shai, will entertain with songs in English and Hebrew. Mr. Frank Wartur, a member of the Men's Club, will again delight the youngsters in his role as the "balloon man".

In behalf of both organizations, Dr. Ernest S. Barash, president of the Men's Club, and Mrs. Milton Gelman, president of the Parents Association, invite parents and their children to attend the opening brunch — a fine opportunity to renew friendships after the summer months and to meet members who have recently joined the congregational family.

Services for Children Well Attended

Services on the High Holy Days for children of the Religious School were carefully planned and carried out with maximal participation by children on all age levels. Approximately 400 children including high school students participated in the six services.

It is interesting to note the following:

4-5 year olds—approximately 45 children and 25 parents attended

6-7 year olds—40 children and 8 parents

8-10 year olds—the Chapel was full but not crowded

10-13 year olds—the Chapel was full but not crowded.

Five students served as Shofar blowers during the services—the youngest only eight years of age.

Cocktail Party Sunday, November 14

The Mr. and Mrs. Club in conjunction with Sisterhood will hold its first social get together of the season Sunday, November 14, from 4:00-7:00 p.m. in the Lemberg Auditorium. The annual cocktail party is always an event to which members look forward to greeting old friends and welcoming the newest members of our synagogue family. Congregants are cordially invited to attend and those who wish to join the Mr. and Mrs. Club and Sisterhood can do so at the door. Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres will be served and music by an excellent band will set the mood for a festive party.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Siegel, chairmen of the Cocktail Party, will be assisted by the following members of the Mr. and Mrs. Club: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Altman, Mr. and Mrs. Jacques Bienenfeld, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Deutsch, Mr. and Mrs. Saul Finkel, Mrs. Belle Klein, and Mrs. Ruth Zucker. Mrs. Herman Berger and Mrs. Jack Boneparth will serve as Sisterhood chairmen and will be assisted by Mrs. Charles Bennet.

Wanted!

A tall metal cabinet with a key which can be locked to keep Ceremonial Gift Shop items. If you have such a cabinet in good condition to give the Gift Shop, please phone Mrs. Jacob Applebaum, chairman, RH 4-6119 and she will arrange to have it picked up.

Retirees Group

The Retirees Group held the first meeting of the season on Thursday, October 7, attended by sixteen men, former and new members, who held a discussion on the Carter-Ford debates. Future meetings will take place at 3:00 p.m. every Thursday afternoon in the Lemberg Auditorium. Programs will include talks by members on subjects with which they are particularly knowledgeable as well as on topics of current interest.

For the coming year, the officers are: Mr. Sidney Friedman, reelected president; Dr. Joseph Feuerburgh, reelected secretary. Mr. Harry Cohen, Mr. Samuel Edelman and Mr. Louis Geudzier will be in charge of hospitality. All men who are retired or semi-retired are invited to join the group.

Sisterhood Meeting Tuesday, November 16

Juliette T. Benton, Guest Speaker

Mrs. Juliette T. Benton, a member of Park Avenue Synagogue, who has spoken here on many occasions, will be the guest speaker at Sisterhood's open meeting on Tuesday, November 16, at 1:00 p.m.

A special welcome is extended to new congregants to join Sisterhood at this opening meeting. Following the lecture there will be a coffee hour.

Always an interesting, well informed speaker and lecturer on books and plays, Mrs. Benton will discuss the best seller, "World of Our Fathers" by Irving Howe who masterfully tells of the journey of the European Jews to America and the life they found and made.

Mrs. Benton's lectures on current and classical literature are stimulating and well presented and always attract large audiences. She is listed in "Who's Who of American Women" and is on the board of Masterworks Laboratory Theatre. She has taught public speaking throughout the United States at national organizations and has conducted reading and discussion groups on current and classical literature.

Mrs. Benton has been a charter member of the Speakers Research Committee of the U.N. since its inception in 1948 and one of the first hundred members of the Hall of Fame of the Hunter College Alumnae Association. She is currently a national vice president of the Muscular Dystrophy Association and a former member of the National Board of Hadassah.

Mrs. Charles Bennet, president of Sisterhood, and members of the Executive Board look forward to welcoming congregants who have recently joined the synagogue. Mrs. Seymour Wimpfheimer, chairman of the day, has planned an exciting afternoon and a warm welcome is extended to congregants to attend on Tuesday, November 16.
